A Social Media Africentric Mentoring Model:
The Ladies and Their Legacies

ASSURE INSTRUCTIONAL MODEL

VIEW

1. Analyze Learners

2. State Objectives

3. Select method, media or materials

4. Utilize media and materials

5. Require learner's participation

6. Evaluate and revise

A Social Media Africentric Mentoring Model:
The Ladies and Their Legacies

A CREATIVE WAY TO TEACH AND LEARN:

- BLACK HISTORY
- WOMEN HISTORY
- AMERICAN HISTORY

LegacyGirls, Learning HerStory

www.aallfoundation.com

How to Research on the Computer

edmodo

➡ Click on the word VIEW for each Category

➡ Provide a brief bio on the First Ladies of Distinction

➡ Click on each Category in order to conduct First Distinction Research

➡ Video Bio

Written Bio

AFRICAN-AMERICAN FIRST LADIES OF DISTINCTION

Academia
Ruth Simons
VIEW

Activism
Coretta Scott King
VIEW

Arts
Ruby Dee
VIEW

Athletics
Gabrielle Douglas
VIEW

Business – Corporate
Oprah Winfrey
VIEW

Chicago/Illinois-Connections
Michelle Obama
VIEW

Government – Politics Carol Moseley
VIEW

Health Medicine
Dr. Joycelyn Elders
VIEW

Journalism
Pearl Stewart
VIEW

Law – Justice
Judge Constance Motley
VIEW

Media
Cathy Hughes
VIEW

Military
Hazel Johnson
VIEW

Music – Dance
Aretha Franklin
VIEW

Religion
Vashti McKenzie
VIEW

STEM
Kyla McMullen
VIEW

FOUNDATION

A Social Media Africentric Mentoring Model:
The Ladies and Their Legacies

OUTCOMES

✓ Students will improve writing skills by daily posting

✓ Students will improve computer literacy skills

✓ Students will improve public speaking skills

✓ Students will obtain an increase knowledge of Black History, Women History, and American History

✓ Students will increase their self-esteem and will take pride in learning about African American Women with First Distinction

Writing Conventions

Edmodo Posting

Public Speaking

Video Recording

INTERACT Cheat Sheet

Edmodo.com

Overview
Creating an Account
Creating a Group/Posting

FOUNDATION

What is it?

www.edmodo.com provides secure social networking for classrooms. In other words, it is a flexible online tool that allows teachers to easily create discussion groups and post:

- Assignments
- Questions
- Links
- Polls
- And more…

in order to facilitate collaboration.

Creating An Account

To create a free Edmodo account:
1. Visit www.Edmodo.com
2. Click the "I'm a Teacher" or "I'm a Student" button
3. Complete the simple sign-up form

Please Note: In order for students to complete the sign up process they MUST have the Group Code provided to them by their teacher.

User's Guide

Be sure to check out Edmodo's illustrated guide to learn more about the amazing things possible with Edmodo!
www.Edmodo.com/guide/
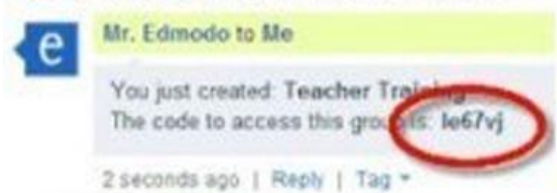

Joining a Group

Groups   Join or Create

To Join a group that has been created by another Edmodo user:

1. Click "Join" (found on the left side bar)
2. Enter the Group Code that is given to you by the teacher who created the group.
3. Success! Exit out of the Success window
4. Note that the name of the group you joined is now listed on the left side bar.

On the left side bar, click Create and choose a name, subject, and grade level for the new group you've just created.
Then use the Group Code found in your home stream to invite students or colleagues to join the group you've just created.

Once created, the group will be listed in the left side bar. Use your mouse to hover over the group name in order to success a list of management features.

The Post Bubble at the top of the page allows you send a note, alert, assignment, or poll to one or more of your groups. On notes and assignments, you can attach files and links from your computer or Edmodo library. All files or links posted will automatically be added to your library, so make sure give your links good descriptions!

To post the contnent, type the name of a student, teacher, or group(s) into the "Send to" box (Edmodo provides auto-suggestions) and click Send.

Quick tips:

Click inside the Send to box, and hit the down arrow button on your keyboard to view a list of available groups and individuals recipients.
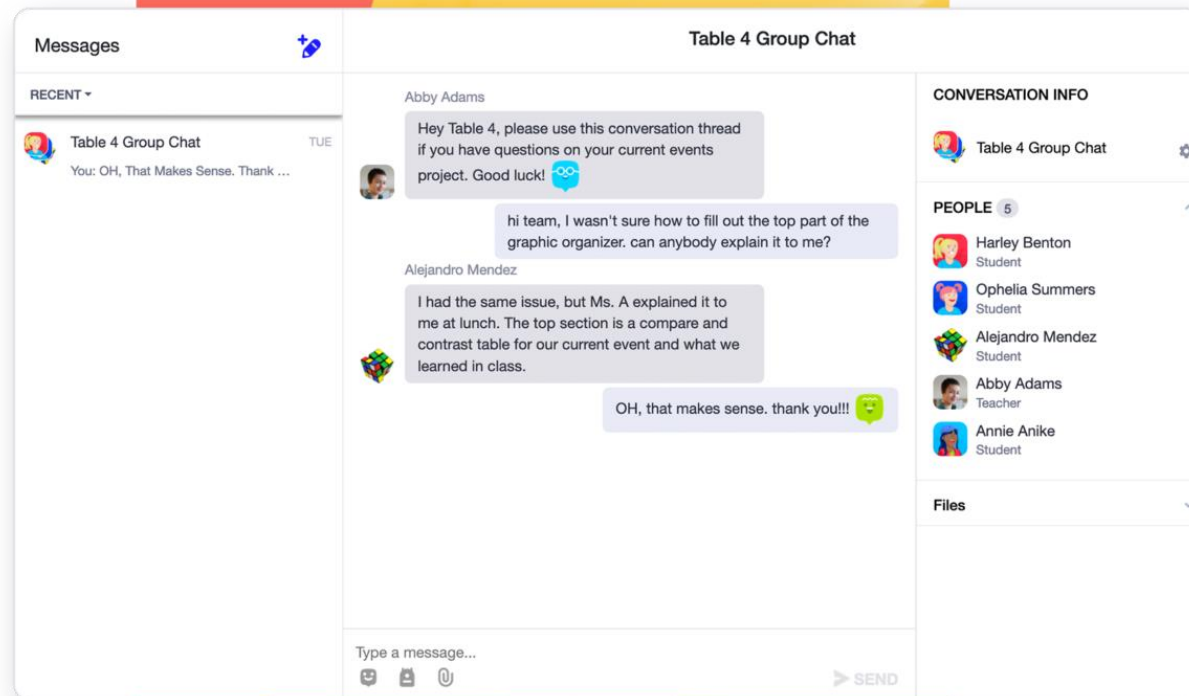

By default, all post are private so that only group members can see them. Teahers can release post to the group's publick timeline by clicking Public beneath any published post. The publick timeline of a group can be viewed by anyone who has the group's publick URL.

Archive a group once the semester or class has ended, rendering the group inactive. If you'd like to reuse the name of group next semester, make sure to rename the existing group before archiving it.

Edmodo Instruction
African American First Ladies of Instruction

Posting Examples

African American First Ladies of Distinction
WHO AM I QUICK FACTS?
STUDENT WORK SHEET

Objectives

To teach students how to use the www.aallfoundation's website as an instructional tool to teach students about the history of African American First Ladies of Distinctions.

To instruct students in using the Conventions of Writing when writing sentences for Daily Posting

www.aallfoundation.com

Be creative as your write and research and learn about your First Lady of Distinction

- ✅ Dress in character of your assigned African American First Lady of Distinction and Video Record the Role Play

- ✅ To integrate the Performing Arts into the curriculum by having to do a 2- 3-minute Role Play on an assigned African American First Lady of Distinction.

- ✅ Name of the African American First Lady of Distinction

- ✅ Write a Paragraph about Early Child Hood Days (Where was she born, where did she go school)

- ✅ Write about her Family Life. (Did she marry, who did she marry, did she have children)

- ✅ Where did she live as an adult? (What City, Town, etc.)?

- ✅ What type of work did she do (Occupation)?

- ✅ What was her First Distinction? Example of a First Distinction: Michelle Obama was the first African American to become the First Lady of the United States of America.

- ✅ What was her date of death (if applicable and where did she die)

- ✅ What Special Awards or Honors did she receive? Does she have any schools, monuments, etc. built in her honor?

- ✅ What did you like best about your African-American First Lady of Distinction

- ✅ What did you learn about your First Lady of Distinction

A Social Media Africentric Mentoring Model:
The Ladies and Their Legacies

Teach

Test

Post Test

I WANT TO BE A FIRST WHEN I GROW-UP!